Kiss the Rain

Author's Notes:
Let's see if I've still got the chops for writing drabbles!

Their arms tight around one another and their lips were sealed in a blazing kiss. Rain had turned their baggy black shirts skin tight and plastered their hair to their faces. Flaming red and gentle blonde, caught in one, perfect moment. Above them, the sun was just breaking through the thick storm clouds, promising that their future would be as bright as their love.

Sitting on the couch, David smiled at the photo in his hands. It may have been twenty years old but the passion that it caught was as strong, and as hot, as it had ever been.
